The colour palette is made up of classic suiting choices, blues and greys in many shades, but the use of different weaving techniques helps to create many interesting designs across the collection.

SIR STRIPE
As its name suggests this collection is all about stripes, Scabal have dedicated an entire collection to celebrate this traditional suiting hero. Made in England at the Scabal mill by our master weavers you can choose from a variety of qualities including a Super 130’s flannel or a clean-cut Super 110’s worsted cloth. With weights up to 280grams this is an ideal choice for the cooler months. Pinstripe, shadow, chalk you will find them all in the range. This is a very well-constructed cloth collection with a distinctly English feel.

PEGASUS

Colours are the selection of blues and greys you would expect for suiting but the 290gm weight adds the robustness required for a suit that needs to withstand the challenges of winter. Comfort is also a key element with added stretch and the finest yarns woven to create a very soft finish.
